Bryan Jeffery Leech has the unique ability to create relational music material that has an air of freshness and majesty. Rev. Leech is a Minister with the Evangelical Covenant Church of America, who after 15 years of pastoral service moved into a career of free-lance writing, composing and broadcasting. Bryan has over 100 published songs, anthems, cantatas, songbooks, hymns and musicals.

Bryan has significantly contributed to contemporary hymnody, and in 1973 won the Key '73 award for his hymn, "Let God Be God." He was a member of the editorial board for the "New Covenant Hymnal" and assistant editor to Fred Bock for "Hymns For the Family of God."

Bryan currently hosts a weekly half-hour program which is aired over radio stations in the United States and abroad. He continues to write new texts, songs and hymns. He is a popular speaker at music and worship conferences throughout the United States.
